Teach the faith at home.

After Jesus' birth, He is presented at the temple and Zechariah and Anna witness their Savior. The wise men from the far East come to witness the birth of the new King, and the revelation of God to the Gentiles. We read in the Gospel of Luke (Luke 2:41-52), that at the age of twelve, the boy Jesus is at the Temple discussing Scripture with the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. Discussing His father's business. His parents Mary and Joseph spent three days looking for him at the Passover celebration. Can't imagine the anguish of Mary and Joseph.

And we do not hear much about the boy Jesus in Scripture, we do not have much details of his childhood. AS we read in scripture, it has been revealed what we need to know. It isn't until his Baptism. The Gospel of Matthew says at the age of 30 years old; Jesus begins his mission. He is born to give his life upon the cross for salvation of all humanity. As He is baptized by John the Baptist, He is prepared to do His Father's will. Atonement for the sins of the world. HE is looking ahead of His suffering, death and resurrection for the salvation of all humanity. In His journey from the waters of Holy Baptism unto His death on the cross. After Christmas and Epiphany, the Church begins to contemplate the Resurrection of our Lord.

A father once asked me, "Pastor, what is the Christian worldview of our times, I taught my children how to build a house from scratch with their bare hands, we paid for their education, but we do not see them at Church. They have wandered into the world; did we spoil them?"

My reflection is, have you taught the faith at home dear Christian?!

We can teach our children to fish, hunt, or build a house, but have you taught the faith at home? Proverbs 22:6 "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it"

Martin Luther wrote: "It is because of His humanity and His incarnation that Christ becomes sweet to us, and through Him God becomes sweet to us. Let us therefore begin to ascend step by step from Christ's crying in His swaddling clothes up to His Passion. Then we shall easily know God. I am saying this so that you do not begin to contemplate God from the top but start with the weak elements. We should busy ourselves completely with treating, knowing, and considering this man. Then you will know that He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

Like many children in our families, Mary and Joseph cherished the gift of God in this child. The greatest gift to humanity is the incarnation of the Son of God. Children are a gift and a blessing to a marriage. We cherish them in training them, loving them, we have been entrusted with their care. Our good stewardship begins when we bring them to the waters of Holy Baptism, raise them in the love of God and teach them Scripture and His ways.

Jesus grew under his father's tutelage. Jesus learned the skill of carpentry from His father. For many generations this has been the norm. Parents teach and transfer their knowledge to their children. Our parents are our best teachers. We learn from them every day. Families would have for many generations teachers, farmers, lawyers and doctors, occupations transferred from generation to generation. Our parents are the greatest influence in our lives and we depend on their direction to follow the vocation God calls us to fulfill, in order to serve God and our neighbor. We teach children, guide teenagers and counsel young adults.

Dear Christian, teach the faith at home as you would teach them how to fish, farm, or even speak. It's the only way they will be able to make their way in this fallen world. Under your tutelage, they will be able to face the world with their eyes fixed on Jesus. Let them learn from you. How do you react in the midst of trials and tribulation. Let them see that you seek the Lord. When calamities and deception arrive, let them see that you call upon the Lord, in prayer and supplication. Let them see that you open your Bible to seek God's wisdom and direction. Let them see that you praise the Lord and worship Him in thankfulness for all His blessings upon you. Let them see that you rejoice at the gathering for worship. In this way they will learn to worship and call upon their Lord and Savior as well. Trusting the Lord almighty is faithful to deliver them, heal them and save them from the hands of the enemy. They will be able to call upon the Lord who is faithful to his promise given to them in their Baptism. They are God's children, and they should sing and confess out loud, I am Baptized into Christ.

And when your children grow older and leave the nest, trust the Lord your Savior who is faithful and will be faithful to His promise. He will watch over his dear children, entrusted to your care. Trust their Baptism and the one who calls them His own. And when they return to the Lord from wandering in the world, welcome them with open arms in the love of God. Pray for them and continue to show them the love of Jesus. Joshua 24:15b. But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.

It's not easy to have faith conversations when family gathers, especially during holydays. But know dear brother and sister in Christ, that through prayer and holy conversation you will be gaining God's children back to their loving Father, who died and rose for them. Put your trust and hope in the one who will never leave you not forsake you.

Preschool News

Trinity 4 has started working on their zoo-phonics, and it's starting to look like a zoo! They have heard how God shut the mouths of the lions while Daniel was in the lion's den, they watched as they seen a demonstration of how God's light shines in each of us, and our cup overflows with the goodness and grace from our Lord, and how because of His great love for us Jesus went to the cross in our place.

Trinity 3 has finished the 4 seasons and is learning some basic shapes. Like God's love for us is never ending, like a circle, and He has a BIG - BIG heart for you! We will have one more Little Lambs Sunday on the 18th. The lambs that we will be celebrating are: Noah Morales, Quentin Schultz, Genevieve Reha, Haven Tackett, Michael Larsen, Rylee Messersmith, Scarlett Schultz, Cynex Consbruck-Solis, and Finlee Bevens. Please keep these and all our preschool families in your daily prayers.

It's Fun Night- time again! On the 18th the Fellowship Hall will be transformed; there will be games, auction items, drawing items and FOOD! The Fun Night committee has been working hard to get prizes and food to make this an afternoon of fellowship. You are invited to come and play games and then enjoy a hamburger with us! Invite your family and neighbors to come and join you in a fun filled afternoon.

Music News

*Chief of sinners though I be, Jesus shed His blood for me. Died that I might live on high, Lives that I might never die.
As the branch is to the vine, I am His, and He is mine.*

William McComb was a 19th century poet, political activist and Irish cartoonist. The words for the hymn "Chief of Sinners Though I Be" appeared in The Original Secession Magazine (1856) and in Lyra Britannica (1867). A few small changes occurred when published in our hymnals now to ensure the text does not limit the power of the Savior.

The lyrics express the faith of a forgiven sinner. In 1 Timothy 1:15 St. Paul describes himself as "chief" of sinners (ESV text says "foremost"). The hymn tells us to confess to Jesus, because of what He has done for us (1 John 1:7, John 1:5, Galatians 2:20).

The second stanza can remind of us the parables of the lost sheep and the lost coin (Romans 8) with the words "Love that found me - wondrous thought! Found me when I sought Him not."

Stanza 3 brings in Romans 5, giving us "peace" that flows, "joy" that lifts the soul, "faith" and "hope" that we will walk with God.

The last two stanzas Come back to 1 Timothy and also Colossians 3:11 "Christ is all, and in all". And Philippians 4:19 "My God will supply every need of yours". All these are reminders of God's unwavering love and forgiveness, words to read or sing when we may feel like we are falling short.

Zechariah: Your Kingdom Come!

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday. For Trinity, Garden City, it will begin on “Ash Tuesday”, February 13 th . On Saturday and Sundays during this Lenten season we will begin to explore God’s Word through the writing of the Prophet Zechariah whose chief concern is God’s kingdom. Throughout all fourteen chapters, Zechariah joyfully announces that God’s kingdom is coming through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The book of Zechariah abounds with stunning portraits of our Savior. Jesus serves as the prophet’s Interpreting Messenger throughout the first six chapters. Zechariah calls Jesus a “Sprout” (3:8; 6:12), “Servant” (3:8) and “Stone” (3:9). It is in his last six chapters, though, that the prophet describes Jesus in much more compelling ways. Jesus is righteous and humble (9:9). His blood of the covenant sets prisoners free (9:11). He is the church’s Cornerstone, Tent Peg and Battle Bow (10:4). Then, in a dramatic twist of fate, Christ is detested (11:8), sold for thirty pieces of silver (11:12), struck so his sheep scatter (13:7) and finally pierced and killed (12:10). In the end, however, God’s kingdom comes—finally and permanently, in pristine beauty (14:9, 16, 17).

Sermon plans are as follows:

Ash Wednesday “First Things First” (Zechariah 1:1–6)

Lent 1 “It’s Tool Time!” (Zechariah 1:18–21)

Lent 2 “Silencing Satan” (Zechariah 3:1–10)

Lent 3 “Who Will Take the Garbage Out?” (Zechariah 5:5–11)

Lent 4 “First Secure Your Own Oxygen Mask” (Zechariah 8:20–23)

Lent 5 “The Redeemer’s Refinery” (Zechariah 13:1–2)

Palm Sunday “Expectations Meet Reality” (Zechariah 9:9–10)

Maundy Thursday “Covenant Blood” (Zechariah 9:11–12)

Good Friday “God is Dead!” (Zechariah 12:10–14)

Easter Vigil No theme at this time

Easter Day “All Things New!” (Zechariah 14:8–11)

Our Sunday Morning Bible Class will look at the exciting history and theology connected with the book of Zechariah.

Our Wednesday Midweek services will be on Wednesdays at 6:30pm and will focus upon the Lord’s Prayer.

This Lent, rejoice, for God’s kingdom comes to you—through Jesus our Lord!
