"And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise"
(Deut. 6:6-7).

What do you think when I say, "Word of God?"

You might very well think of the Bible, the book many of us greatly revere. Truth is, we severely limit the "Word of God" when we identify it only with printed words on pages in a book. An old Latin expression puts it more truly, viva vox evangelii, the living voice of the Gospel. "The word of God is living and active." (Hebrews 4:12) "The words I have spoken to you are spirit and life." (John 10:63) When Johannes Gutenberg invented moveable type in the 15th century, the Word of God became increasingly identified with a printed book. The wide distribution of Bibles was a blessing, no doubt, but today we forget that the Word was originally shared orally, read and shared in public gatherings, passed from generation to generation through memory, truly a living voice.

Years ago there was a special project at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. For almost a year, five people from the Seminary memorized the entire Gospel of Mark and then presented this Gospel, memorized, to those who would come to listen.

During our 100th anniversary you may recall the Lutheran Hour Speaker, Dr. Michael Zeigler, during Bible study stood in front of our group and regurgitated the first chapter of a book of the Bible. To me, it was amazing.

Can you imagine the discipline? It must have been an eye-opener for these five people at the seminary. One of the memorizers put it this way, "In memorizing the Gospel we have been forced to imagine what the events were like. In memorizing such long sections, we see themes and emphases that are hard to catch when simply reading the book. We better understand how people first received the Gospel, sitting, seeing and hearing someone deliver it orally."

This is inspiring. Let God's Word continue to LIVE in and with you. Don't let the Word of God in your life be bound by a Gutenberg captivity.

In Christ,

Pastor Hageman

Hard to believe that another school year is coming to an end! Trinity 3 will have their last day program on the 16th and Trinity 4 will have their graduation on the 17th both will be at 7pm in the fellowship hall. You are cordially invited to attend one or both of the programs to see how much we have learned this year. Both classes collected items for the Humane Society showing how our "Faith at Work" helped our community, in return the Humane Society came to our class and brought a surprise for us to pet!

Trinity 4 has worked hard all year and we have finished making all the zoo animals, so now it's time to get to play; we will go to the zoo and see some of the animals we made, we will also get to have a water play day, (we are praying for warm weather so we can play in the water outside)!

Trinity 3 has also worked very hard this year and they have finished their Bible number book. They will go to the zoo and have their water play day as well.

Serving Christ together, Tammy Lampe & Tina Davis

Music News

*And He will raise you up on eagles' wings,
Bear you on the breath of dawn, Make you to shine like the sun,
And hold you in the palm of His hand*

If there's one song that Christians from all over share, know and love it would have to be On Eagles' Wings. The hymn made its public debut in 1979 recorded by North American Liturgy Resources. The composer and author Jan Michael Joncas came up with the hymn in 1976 when her friend received news that his father had just passed away from a heart attack. The song was sung at the funeral on April 27, 1976.

Psalm 91 serves as the basis for the hymn. "He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the Lord, "my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust." For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day" (Psalm 91:1-5)

"The wings of God serve to gather, protect, and bear up His children. Christ longs to gather them as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings (Matthew 23:37)" LSB Companion to the hymns
