Recently, I was reading a letter the church Father Athanasius wrote to a person who had fallen ill. Athanasius was very instrumental in helping the church write the Nicene Creed. Reading this lengthy letter that had been written over 1600 years ago excited my soul. It reinvigorated my desire to pray the Psalms!

Athanasius had heard through the grape-vine that this individual began to focus more fully on praying the psalms during his illness. In the letter Athanasius encouraged the man to continue to take advantage of his sickness in order to draw closer to the Lord. He goes into great detail on how the psalms are different than any other scripture for the benefit of a persons soul.

Being ill is no fun. There are some in our congregation who have fallen ill with various illnesses in recent times. When this happens everything in life goes on hold. Better that I say "almost everything goes on hold" because I know my thoughts never went on hold during those strenuous times. Neither would yours if you or a loved one has been diagnosed with something serious, something taking you to the hospital, something with an uncertain outcome. Your thoughts don't go on hold at such times; they kick into high gear.

What do your supercharged thoughts think then? Most Christians will turn to God with prayers for successful treatment or even pray that the Lord would take them home to Christ's heavenly mansion. Personally, I am different. I would tend to pray a thought similar to that of Dr. Dale Meyer, former President of Concordia Seminary, when he says,

...over the years, I've learned that there is another response, one more desirable. Strange as it sounds, I'd hope to have an attitude of "what an opportunity!" I'm being stripped of my reliance on anyone or anything except God. However the medical treatment goes, it's a time when you are forced to focus on what Jesus called "the one thing needful" (Luke 10:42).

"The one thing needful"...I am with Dr. Meyer. I'd much rather grow closer to God in times of weakness than grow away from Him in times of strength.

Our best to all who suffer illnesses. Our best to you when illness challenges your faith. Take this as an encouragement when you fall ill. Turn to the Word. Pray the Word. Pray the Psalms! They are for you.

In Christ,

Pastor Hageman

Preschool News

Trinity 4 has graduated and is moving on to kindergarten, and Trinity 3 had their last day program and will also be moving up. We had a very busy year filled with learning, lots of laughs and happy smiles. We will be taking the next couple of months off to prepare for the next school year. If you know of a family that would like to join us have them call the church office and we will happy to meet up with them and get them enrolled! Enjoy your summer!

The Service of Matins

Matins (sometimes called Vigils) is the first service of the Daily Office. Historically, Vigils took place in the middle of the night in the monasteries. Coming from the French matines and Latin matutinus ("Belonging to the early morning"), it is sung in the early morning. The services of the Daily Office can be used for personal time of devotion. When a congregation prays Matins, there is no receiving of the Sacrament.

Matins begins with the Opening Versicles "O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare Your praise" Psalm 51:15, confessing that He is the one who opens our mouth and fits it with the proper words for prayer, praise and thanksgiving.

The Psalmody is next, singing O Come, Let Us Sing which is Psalm 95:1-7. Additional Psalms or an office hymn can be added according to the season.

The Readings follow the Psalmody. While there are no systematic readings, they can come from reading plans or the Treasury of Daily Prayer (these are the Daily Readings in our Congregation at Prayer inserts!)

Canticle: Te Deum We Praise You, O God or Benedictus Song of Zechariah

Prayer. Matins concludes with the Krie, Lords Prayer, Collects and Benediction.
