During the season of Advent, we prepare to celebrate the birth of God's Son, who was given the name Jesus—a Hebrew name that means "God saves." In addition to His earthly name, Holy Scripture calls Jesus by various titles which describe something about His person and His work. In this year's Advent series we are going to examine four titles given to Jesus in Isaiah 9:6; Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father. On December 24th, the Nativity of our Lord, we will hear how this child born in Bethlehem is our Prince of Peace.

These titles from Isaiah 9 describe the Savior who is to come, Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God in human flesh. We will learn how each of these titles describes something about who Jesus is and what He did for our salvation. Below is the schedule for each weekend during the season of Advent and the 6:30pm Christmas Eve Service as we in veneration of our Lord prepare for His coming.

Trinity's Advent Weekend Schedule:

Advent 1: November 30th & December 1st – Wonderful Counselor

Advent 2: December 7th & 8th – Mighty God

Advent 3: December 14th – Advent Hymn Sing – "The People That in Darkness Sat"

Advent 3: December 15th – Children's Program – The Story of the Nativity

Advent 4: December 21st & 22nd – Everlasting Father

Christmas Eve: December 24th – Prince of Peace

In addition to our weekly weekend worship opportunities, we will also be offering abbreviated Midweek Vesper Services at 12noon and a richer Midweek Vespers Service at 6:30pm with catechesis focusing on our bodies. Jesus was born and is given the title true God and true Man. If we confess that Jesus is true man it would suffice to say that He has a body. If He has a body, it would not be too far a stretch to say that bodies are important. Therefore, during this season of Advent we will explore "Why Bodies Matter" in different aspects of life.

Trinity's Wednesday Advent Midweek Schedule:

Advent 1: December 4th – "Why Bodies Matter – In Marriage"

Advent 2: December 11th – "Why Bodies Matter – In Parenthood"

Advent 3: December 18th – "Why Bodies Matter – In Suffering"

In the name of Jesus,
Pastor Hageman

Preschool News

Merry Christmas! What a fast year it has been. Trinity 3 & 4 is excited for Christmas, and just as excited to hear about our Lord's birth. Both classes are working on their Christmas program; it will be on Thursday the 19th at 7pm, please come out and see the Christmas story told by 3, 4 & 5 year olds!

Trinity 3 has made their stable and is busy filling it. They have the baby Jesus in the manger with Mary and Joseph attending to him, and the shepherds with their sheep and the angel singing praises. Each nativity item is painted or colored in a different way.

Trinity 4 is collecting items like hats, gloves, blankets, socks, snacks, word search type books etc., to give to the Senior Center for our community Christmas. If you would like to help and donate, you can leave your donation at the preschool room.

We wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a joyous New Year!

Serving Christ together, Tammy Lampe & Tina Davis

Music News

You might be surprised to hear that the Christmas season is not my favorite, in fact it's probably at the bottom of my list of favorite holidays. I'm just being honest. Obnoxious lights and decorations that give you a migraine if you stare too long, the pressure to one-up last year's gift giving, finding the time to do all the decorating and shopping. And if you're a parent there are the concerts, the programs, the clubs outside of school Christmas parties. It seems like you are never home. It's a constant scramble for gifts, cheese trays and making sure all the performance attire is cleaned and wrinkle free at the very last minute. Tights have a hole? You're stopping at Target on the way to the high school before a choir concert and putting them on in the car.

We are running ourselves ragged during the holidays, and at least in my mind, it's taken away from the sacredness. Don't get me wrong. In my bah-humbug-ness I really do love Christmas. The true meaning of Christmas. I've been blessed to do this music thing at Trinity for a couple years now and my absolute favorite thing to do that soothes my soul is coming here in the evenings and playing. And when our beautiful Christmas tree is lit-up in the darkened sanctuary with the only other light coming from the cross and I'm playing Silent Night, I'm not even joking when I say I'm tearing up just thinking about it. The peace from that stillness, the words of Christmas hymns, reflecting on that Jesus was born, so He that could die for us. A birth so humble He slept in a manger, I remember it's ok. It's all gonna be ok.

So when we here at church ask for the kids to participate in yet another Christmas program, there's no pressure. No expectations of being on pitch, or even memorizing parts! Sure it's cute and the older members love seeing the kids up there. But for the kids there's something about spending that time together with your friends that adds to the enjoyment of it all. Together they get to share the wonderful story of Christmas.

"Oh, tidings of comfort and joy"
